

Alameda County Interagency Children's Policy Council

In Partnership with the

Sexually Exploited Minors Provider network

Presents

No Longer Invisible

Shedding Light on the issue of Commercially Sexually Exploited Children

Sexually Exploited Minors Awareness Week

April 21st through April 25th 2008

SEM Townhall Meeting

Sponsored by KPFA Hard Knock Radio and ICPC
A Live Broadcast

Thursday, April 24, 2008, 3pm to 6pm

Youth Uprising Center, 8711 MacArthur Boulevard, Oakland, CA 94605

A Panel Discussion, Moderated by Weylan Southon, Executive Producer KPFA Hard Knock Radio

Unveiling the Epidemic: Children as young as 11 years old are ensnared into prostitution, they are too valuable to be bought or sold!

The goal is to enable a critical dialogue among local experts, child advocates, adult survivors of adolescent exploitation, government officials, law enforcement, youth and community members alike to raise awareness about the plight of children and youth being sexually exploited and encourage vigilance and community commitment.

Guest Panelist Include: Ise Lyfe, Hip Hop Recording Artist and Poet

Nola Brantley, Co-Founder M.I.S.S.E.Y. Motivating Inspiring Supporting Serving Sexually Exploited Youth

Julie Pasados-Guzman, Co-Founder, Youth Justice Initiative

Oakland Police Department Special Victims Unit

SEM Adult Survivor and Advocate

For more information contact Zandra Washington, Event Coordinator at (510)618-3458

Email: Zandra.Washington@acgov.org